FEATURED TRIPS

RIVERSIDE MISSION INN - RESCHEDULED

Saturday, January 6th

Due to the recent fires, our trip to Temecula's Farmers Market, Tio Tacos, and the historic landmark Mission Inn has been rescheduled for Saturday, January 6th.

Join us as we keep the season alive and bring in the New Year. This moderate activity level day trip is to three very different destinations. Our first stop will be at the Farmers Market in Temecula. You will have time to wander around looking at the local fruits, veggies, eggs, flowers, plants, crafts and much more. There is room under the bus for your purchases. Afterward, we'll head for downtown Riverside for lunch at Tio Tacos, a hole in the wall taco shop. It is the backyard that brings us here. It is filled with unique, eclectic art/sculptures from recycled, repurposed material. Truly unbelievable! There is a snake made from a vacuum cleaner hose located in a tree. Check out the menu at Tiotacos1.com.

After lunch, we will walk a short distance to our final destination, Mission Inn, a national historical landmark. This 4-story, 238 room inn opened in 1903 as a roadside motel, occupies a city block in the heart of downtown Riverside. Numerous presidents, Hollywood stars and dignitaries have frequented the inn. At dusk, we will enjoy millions of holiday sparkling lights that transform the inn into an enchanting fairy tale setting. We will have dinner at Sizzler in Perris.

A few seats remain. Call the office for availability prior to sending in your check for $65 which includes bus, docent-led tour of Mission Inn, and snacks. Meals are not included. What a bargain! Include your email address and cell number with your check. There will be no refunds unless there is someone from the waiting list to take your place. This will be truly be an experience you will long remember. Questions? Phone (619) 886-8086 or email bevbruff@yahoo.com.

A UNIQUE TRAVEL PROGRAM FOR 2018

During 2018 our chief tour leader, Dan Haslam, will be on sabbatical leave from Walkabout so he can travel around the world. The good news is that Dan is opening segments of his trip to Walkabouters who would like to join him as individuals or in small groups. Here's how it will work: get on the interest list for Dan's detailed itinerary by contacting the office with your email address. All reservations/confirmations, etc. will be handled by Dan via email. All payments will, as always, go through the Walkabout office. Peruse the itinerary for a segment of the world tour that interests you. You can provide your own airfare and "tack on" the segment to your independent itinerary, or your airline ticket can be purchased for you. Your segment price will be quoted to you in advance of your making any initial payments and will include being met at the airport or other point of arrival, your accommodations, and Dan's services as your walk guide. Trip/travel insurance is a "must," and all food and beverage charges (except those specifically included in your itinerary) are not included. Some ground transportation may be included, especially where there is small group involved.

There are two more components to our travels in 2018: you can book a summer vacation with Dan on Cape Cod, MA for one, two, or more weeks. You'll fly to Boston, then a bus to Hyannis where Dan will meet you. You may stay in a vacation condo which he owns, or a hotel, and your tour will include trips around the Cape, a boat to either Martha's Vineyard or Nantucket (or both), and sunny weather and sand on the Atlantic Ocean.

By early October Dan leaves the Cape for a road trip across the U.S. with stops at national parks along the way, and walks in each. You can fly in and join him for an in-depth exploration of your park(s) of choice. He'll meet you at the local airport, and everything will be taken care of for you, just as we do on regular Walkabout tours.

Details are still being worked out at press time concerning the specific itinerary for the world tour. The "bucket list" includes travel from San Diego west around the world, with the final international stop in Ireland. Some of the countries to be visited: Australia, New Zealand, Vietnam, possibly China, Turkey, Greece, Italy, possibly S. Africa, Russia, Sweden, Scotland, Ireland, Spain (Camino). If you love to travel, but hate to do the planning, this is the trip for you. All you have to do is show up and enjoy the walk! You'll have packing instructions and you can indicate the types of accommodations you prefer. We may include a partial meal plan as part of your accommodations (e.g. bed and breakfast). Your trip segment price will include ground transportation (price subject to change if costs fluctuate). Sign up for details at the Walkabout office today!
